

Parts of a Face

SIDE ONE

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO DO ALL THESE ACTIVITIES, BUT IT IS GOOD TO DO AS MANY AS POSSIBLE. TO HELP YOUR CHILD REMEMBER THE WORDS, USE THEM OFTEN IN SENTENCES OVER THE NEXT FEW WEEKS. SOME CHILDREN MIGHT NEED TO HEAR A WORD USED IN SENTENCES UP TO 12 TIMES TO REMEMBER IT.

Family Activities: (More on the back)

- Help your child find these parts on your face.
- Look in the mirror with your child and have him find these parts on his own face.
- Looking in the mirror, make faces so your child can see how a person's forehead, eyebrows, and eyes change when he/she is surprised, angry, afraid, happy, sad. Ask your child to look in the mirror and make a happy face, sad face, look surprised, look angry, etc.
- You could help your child draw a face and label the parts.
- Ask your child to tell you about a time he was very happy or angry. The more your child explains things to you, the better.
